Kentucky 2005 EARTH DAY Award Winners

Earth Day is an opportunity to celebrate Kentucky and the countless acts of stewardship that have improved the quality of our environment. The Environmental Quality Commission, the Kentucky League of Cities and the Kentucky Association of Counties have joined together to celebrate the 36th anniversary of Earth Day and recognize 12 outstanding initiatives that exemplify the heart and spirit of Earth Day and demonstrate the positive benefits when communities support job growth, environmental stewardship and social equity — the three pillars of sustainability.
